Questions for Discussion & Reflection

1. On what are you waiting for God right now? What has been good about that waiting? What has been difficult about it?
2. Do you find it helpful to understand the Bible as one large story with God as the author rather than a collection of many small stories? Why or why not?
3. In the sermon Trent made the point that seeing God's bigger story doesn't just give us helpful perspective but causes us to treasure Christ, which is the key to waiting for God well. Do you find this to be true? Why or why not?
4. Which of the eras/actions in redemptive history discussed is most interesting to you? Why? Was your perspective around any of these events changed? If so, how?
5. How is God calling you to participate in His redemptive purposes for the world? How readily and joyfully are you obeying Him?
