Colossians 3:12-17
What do you see?

11.4.18

What do you see when you think of the future of our church? Here is what I see...

A church where love is not a feeling but a resolution.

A church where hurting people never hurt alone.

A church where we seek to understand before seeking to be understood.

A church where people of all spiritual maturities are warmly embraced.

A church where no one wants to hide their sin.

A church where no one gossips.

A church where everyone gives gospel-centered advice.

Questions for Discussion/Reflection:

1. Did you grow up loving, hating, or indifferent to the local church? Why?
2. Read Colossians 3:12-17. Which points from the sermon stood out to you most and why? What other things do you see in this passage that should mark our church?
3. Do you see yourself as an important part of creating the kind of culture identified above in our church? Why or why not? What are you doing to help produce it?
4. Do you see the importance of your church in shaping this kind of culture in you? Have you had any experiences that demonstrate this?
5. What does your current schedule say about your view of the importance of being actively involved in the life of our church? What is your next step in becoming more actively involved?
