

Question: How do I become a forgiving person?

Answer:

1. By knowing how much God has forgiven me in Christ. (Ephesians 4:32, Colossians 3:12-13)

2. By knowing the danger of failing to forgive. (Matthew 18:21-35, Matthew 6:12-15, Luke 7:36-50)

Questions for Discussion/Reflection

1. As a Life Group read all 5 of the Scripture passages above. What do you see these texts teaching about forgiveness?
2. Why do you think it is so challenging to put these teachings into practice?
3. If you are in Christ, what keeps you from seeing how much God has forgiven you? What can you do to change that?
4. Do you agree that failure to forgive is failure to trust God? How have you seen this demonstrated in your own life?
5. Who do you need to forgive? Who do you need forgiveness from? What step will you take in the next 24 hours to see this occur?
