

Questions for Reflection/Discussion:

1. Why do you think we have become numb to sin in our culture? Do you even agree that we have become numb? Explain.
2. Why do you think we rarely focus on, or talk about repentance?
3. Have you ever had someone play the role of Nathan in your life? What was that like for you? How did you respond?
4. Have you ever played the role of Nathan for someone else? What were your motives for doing so? How did that situation go for you and for the other person?
5. What verses in the Bible have helped you pursue repentance in your life?
6. How do you think your own individual actions in regards to sin and repentance shape your ability to worship? And how do they shape the culture around you?
