John 13
A People of Love Demonstrated by Costly Service

Two Lessons in John 13 for Christians:

- We must love each other.
- That love is to be demonstrated by costly service.

5 Reasons why this is true:

1. We want other people to know Christ. (35)
2. We were established by love displayed as costly service. (1, 8)
3. We are supposed to become like Jesus. (34)
4. We are not greater than Jesus. (13-16)
5. Love is only proven through costly service. (I John 3:16-18)

Questions for Discussion/Reflection:

1. Read John 13 again. What stood out to you from the chapter and/or the sermon?
2. Have you ever reflected on the unique love Christians are supposed to have for other Christians? Do you find this kind of special affection for one another in most Christians? Why or why not?
3. Who has God placed in your life that needs to see Christians love each other so that they might believe in Jesus? What will you do to be a part of how they see this?
4. Can you recall a time when you failed to demonstrate love through costly service? Why do you think you failed?
5. Can you recall a time when you succeeded in demonstrating love through costly service? Why did you succeed?
6. What regular opportunities is God giving you to demonstrate love through costly service right now? What will determine whether you succeed or fail in these?
