

SERMON NOTES

2.23.2020

John 15:1-11 | Trent Thompson
A Life of Joyful Impact

The Call to Bear Fruit (v 1 - 3, 8)

The Means of Bearing Fruit (v 4 - 10)

The Promise of a Fruit Bearing Life (v 11)

SERMON NOTES

2.23.2020

John 15:1-11 | Trent Thompson
A Life of Joyful Impact

The Call to Bear Fruit (v 1 - 3, 8)

The Means of Bearing Fruit (v 4 - 10)

The Promise of a Fruit Bearing Life (v 11)

DISCUSSION & REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you from the text or sermon?
2. Jesus promises that His commands are meant to give us joy. Sometimes we don't experience this as our reality. Why do you think this is the case?
3. How would you describe what it means to abide in Christ in your own words? Can you think of a specific time when you knew you were abiding in Him? How did you know you were abiding in Him?
4. How does having His Word regularly in our mind help us abide in Christ?
5. What are some ways we can stay continually aware of His love?
6. What is the picture you see when you think about the legacy of your life? What fruit do you want to have produced for God in the world? Can you see the connection between abiding in Christ and producing this impact in the world?

DISCUSSION & REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you from the text or sermon?
2. Jesus promises that His commands are meant to give us joy. Sometimes we don't experience this as our reality. Why do you think this is the case?
3. How would you describe what it means to abide in Christ in your own words? Can you think of a specific time when you knew you were abiding in Him? How did you know you were abiding in Him?
4. How does having His Word regularly in our mind help us abide in Christ?
5. What are some ways we can stay continually aware of His love?
6. What is the picture you see when you think about the legacy of your life? What fruit do you want to have produced for God in the world? Can you see the connection between abiding in Christ and producing this impact in the world?

