

SERMON NOTES

07.21.2019

Proverbs: Theology of Work | Dan Spino

We are called to reflect Christ as we approach our work with wisdom.

- 1. The Sluggard: The opposite of wisdom
- 2. Approaching our work with Integrity
- 3. Approaching our work with Diligence

Christ as our example

SERMON NOTES

07.21.2019

Proverbs: Theology of Work | Dan Spino

We are called to reflect Christ as we approach our work with wisdom.

- 1. The Sluggard: The opposite of wisdom
- 2. Approaching our work with Integrity
- 3. Approaching our work with Diligence

Christ as our example

DISCUSSION & REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How did God speak to you, or perhaps convict you, as we examined what Proverbs says about work?
2. Have you ever considered God's design for work before? How does this shape your understanding of work?
3. Why do you think Proverbs has so much to say about the sluggard? What do we learn from him?
4. Have you ever seen a follower of Christ approach his/her work with integrity? What impact did that have on you?
5. How do you think the "soul of the diligent is richly supplied" (Proverbs 13:4)? How do we avoid the tension of working diligently and making work an idol?
6. Where in the Bible do we see Christ at work? How does His example inform your approach to work?
7. As you examine how you approach work, what is one thing that you want your LifeGroup to pray about? Do you have any sluggard tendencies? Do you dread work? Do you overwork? Spend time sharing with your group and praying for God's redeeming and transformative Spirit to be at work in you.

DISCUSSION & REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. How did God speak to you, or perhaps convict you, as we examined what Proverbs says about work?
2. Have you ever considered God's design for work before? How does this shape your understanding of work?
3. Why do you think Proverbs has so much to say about the sluggard? What do we learn from him?
4. Have you ever seen a follower of Christ approach his/her work with integrity? What impact did that have on you?
5. How do you think the "soul of the diligent is richly supplied" (Proverbs 13:4)? How do we avoid the tension of working diligently and making work an idol?
6. Where in the Bible do we see Christ at work? How does His example inform your approach to work?
7. As you examine how you approach work, what is one thing that you want your LifeGroup to pray about? Do you have any sluggard tendencies? Do you dread work? Do you overwork? Spend time sharing with your group and praying for God's redeeming and transformative Spirit to be at work in you.

