

What Parents Need to See:

What Children Need to See:

Questions for Discussion/Reflection:

1. What stood out to you from the text/sermon and why?
2. Did your parents help you become wise? If so, how? If not, what challenges has this created in your life?
3. How has your parent's instruction been a source of protection in your life?
4. Have you ever brought your parents sorrow through foolish choices? How can you bring them joy?
5. If you're a parent what habits have you created in your family to help your kids grow in wisdom? If you're not a parent yet, what habits are you creating that will bless your children if you have them one day?
6. If you're a parent where do you need to grow in godly character so your kids can grow in wisdom by seeing your example? If you're not a parent, where do you need to grow in godly character to honor God and that would prepare you to be a parent should that be God's desire for you?
7. If you're a parent what have you found effective in creating wisdom in your kids through discipline? How does it help you to know that the purpose of discipline is to create wisdom in your children?
