

Why is care for vulnerable people essential to gospel witness?

1. Because God isn't just saving individuals, He is establishing a kingdom of justice and righteousness.

2. Because the gospel believing heart will always be moved by the plight of the vulnerable.

Questions for Discussion/Reflection:

1. What stood out to you from the sermon this week?
2. Read Deuteronomy 10:17-19 and Matthew 25:31-40 again. How would you put the teaching of these passages in your own words? Specifically, what do you think they teach us about the relationship between caring for vulnerable people and sharing the gospel with people?
3. What do you find to be your heart's natural reaction when you encounter vulnerable people? (Empathy, indifference, sadness, etc). Why do you think this is the case?
4. What do you think are the most important questions to ask ourselves when encountering and engaging with vulnerable people?
5. What vulnerable people has God brought into your path? How is He inviting you to express His care for them? What challenges do you have to overcome in order to do so?
