

1. Train themselves to know and apply truth. (Isaiah 56:1-2, 10-11)
 2. Care for the vulnerable. (Isaiah 56:3-5, 57:5, 58:6-7)
 3. Have deep relationships with one another. (Isaiah 58:7, John 13:34)
 4. Be diverse in race, age, and economic standing. (Isaiah 56:3, 6-8)
 5. Embrace biblical sexuality. (Isaiah 57:7-8)
 6. Practice spiritual rhythms that create margin. (Is. 56:2-6, 58:13-14)
 7. Be great neighbors. (Isaiah 59:1-8)
 8. Practice disciplines of denial. (Isaiah 56:9-12)
-

4. Be diverse in race, age, and economic standing.

5. Embrace biblical sexuality.

6. Practice spiritual rhythms that create margin.

7. Be great neighbors.

8. Practice disciplines of denial

1. Train themselves to know and apply truth. (Isaiah 56:1-2, 10-11)
 2. Care for the vulnerable. (Isaiah 56:3-5, 57:5, 58:6-7)
 3. Have deep relationships with one another. (Isaiah 58:7, John 13:34)
 4. Be diverse in race, age, and economic standing. (Isaiah 56:3, 6-8)
 5. Embrace biblical sexuality. (Isaiah 57:7-8)
 6. Practice spiritual rhythms that create margin. (Is. 56:2-6, 58:13-14)
 7. Be great neighbors. (Isaiah 59:1-8)
 8. Practice disciplines of denial. (Isaiah 56:9-12)
-

4. Be diverse in race, age, and economic standing.

5. Embrace biblical sexuality.

6. Practice spiritual rhythms that create margin.

7. Be great neighbors.

8. Practice disciplines of denial

Questions for Discussion/Reflection

1. How would you state your mission in life? How does this mission impact the way you approach work, family, and being a part of our church?
2. Which of the things in this list of 8 are done most when we are gathered? Which are done most when we are scattered throughout the week? Can you think of some ways that we can grow in some of these areas both when we are gathered and scattered?
3. Do you feel comfortable inviting friends who are not Christians to join us when we gather for worship? Why or why not?
4. What is one step you need to take to help our church become what God wants us to be?

Questions for Discussion/Reflection

1. How would you state your mission in life? How does this mission impact the way you approach work, family, and being a part of our church?
2. Which of the things in this list of 8 are done most when we are gathered? Which are done most when we are scattered throughout the week? Can you think of some ways that we can grow in some of these areas both when we are gathered and scattered?
3. Do you feel comfortable inviting friends who are not Christians to join us when we gather for worship? Why or why not?
4. What is one step you need to take to help our church become what God wants us to be?